Introduction

The WorkSource Program Complaint Handbook provides procedural guidance to partners in the WorkSource system for processing Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) Title I, Wagner-Peyser Title III, and Trade Adjustment Act (TAA) program complaints in compliance with federal regulations.

Each section of the Handbook is intended as a stand-alone guide for complaint procedures within its applicable program.

WorkSource Policy 1012, Revision 2, which introduces this handbook, is intended to:

- Clarify the oversight role of Local Workforce Development Boards (LWDBs).
- Outline minimum expectations for coordination among partners.
- Encourage prompt resolution of all customer concerns.

This handbook builds on this framework by:

- Clarifying roles and responsibilities of partners and programs regarding program complaint processing.
- Providing approved procedures containing minimum state and federal requirements for processing program complaints.
- Providing examples of tools (e.g., complaint log and forms) to assist with the implementation of procedures that comply with minimum requirements.

The complaint procedures and tools in this handbook can serve as templates for LWDBs to adopt or modify. These templates represent the minimum state and federal requirements and should not be modified to remove minimum state and federal requirements.

Discrimination complaints will be processed under the WorkSource System Discrimination Complaint Processing Policy 1017.

1.2 Wagner-Peyser Specific Definitions

Apparent Violation – an apparent violation of Wagner-Peyser regulations or employment-related laws by an employer, where an employee or ESD representative observes, has reason to believe, or has received information regarding a suspected violation. If the employer has posted on the agency’s “WorkSource Washington” website within the past 12 months, the appropriate program complaint contact must attempt to resolve the apparent violation. If the employer has not posted on the agency’s website within the last 12 months, the apparent violation of employment-related law must be referred to the appropriate enforcement agency.

Complainant – an individual, organization, employer, association, or other entity filing a program complaint. When the complainant is an English Language Learner (ELL) all written correspondence with the complainant pertaining to the program complaint must include a translation into the complainant’s native language.

- Complainant’s name.
- Mailing address or other means by which the complainant may be contacted.

Complaint regarding an employment-related law – a complaint filed by an individual that does not pertain to job postings placed in the last 24 months on the agency’s website by an employer, or to H2A-H2B postings made by the agency in the last 24 months, that alleges an employer or an agency violated federal or state employment related laws.

Complaint regarding the Employment Service (ES) regulations – an ES complaint may be an agency-related complaint or an employer-related complaint.

- An agency-related complaint occurs in instances where a complainant alleges that ESD or a WorkSource partner, through actions or omissions, violated Wagner-Peyser regulations.
- An employer-related complaint pertains to job postings within the last 24 months, placed on the agency’s website by an employer, or H2A-H2B postings made by the agency, in which the complainant:
 - Alleges the employer violated the terms and conditions of the job posting; or
 - Alleges the employer violated an employment-related law such as wages, working conditions, child labor laws, sanitation, or housing standards, etc.).

Determination – a written record of the results of an investigation, the conclusions reached on the allegations of the program complaint, and how the complaint was resolved. - The complainant indicates satisfaction with resolution.
- The complainant chooses not to elevate a complaint to the next level.

- The complainant exhausts the final level of review.

1.3 Complaint Contact(s) Availability

A locally designated trained program complaint contact must be available to receive complaints regarding both ES regulations and complaints regarding employment law, in person, at all WorkSource centers and affiliates where Wagner-Peyser funded staff are located.

1.4 Complaints Received in Person

If an individual decides to file a program complaint, the following minimum steps must be followed:

- Offer to explain the operation of the Complaint System and offer to take the complaint in writing. It is recommended, but not required, that complainants use the Program Complaint Form (available in English and Spanish) or the federally approved ETA 8429, Complaint/Apparent Violation Form. If the complainant represents several other complainants, all complainants must be named; however, only one signature is required from a complainant listed on the form. An additional sheet may be attached to the form if more space is needed. The additional sheet must be signed and dated by the complainant or the complainant’s representative.
- Obtain all necessary information to resolve or refer the complaint.
- If a complaint is filed by an MSFW, ask the complainant to contact WorkSource before leaving the area in order to obtain change of address information. If the complaint is not resolved at the lowest level possible, the complainant will also be advised to maintain communication with the complaint contact during the fact-finding. For MSFW, the program complaint contact is the State Monitor Advocate (SMA) (see Section 1.11).

- Provide the complainant and any other complainants named on the form with a copy of the completed complaint form as confirmation of receipt.
- Process as a complaint regarding ES regulations or a complaint regarding an employment-related law, depending on jurisdiction.

1.5 Complaints Received in Writing

- When a complaint in any form (such as a letter or e-mail) is received that is signed by the complainant (or the complainant's representative) and includes sufficient information to initiate processing, the document must be treated as if it were a properly completed Complaint Form filed in person by the complainant, and processed as a complaint regarding ES regulations or as a complaint regarding an employment-related law. Confirmation of receipt must be provided to the complainant via hard copy mailing or email.
- If the complainant has not provided sufficient information to process the complaint, additional information must be requested following procedures noted in Section 1.12.

1.7 Procedures for Handling Employment-Related Law complaints

- For all program complaints alleging an employment-related law violation, the complaint contact must assist the individual by referring the complaint to the appropriate enforcement agency in writing.
- All complaints regarding an employment-related law that are referred to an enforcement agency must be logged.
- No follow-up is required on referrals made to an enforcement agency on complaints regarding employment-related laws unless the complainant is an MSFW (see Section 1.11).

1.8 Procedures for Transferring Out-of-Area Complaints Regarding ES Regulations

- Complaints regarding allegations that occurred in another part of the state must be referred to the local ESD administrator where the alleged violation of ES regulations occurred.
- If a WorkSource center or affiliate receives a complaint against more than one site, with an alleged agency-wide violation of ES regulations, the complaint may be initially processed at the state level. Therefore, such complaints must be forwarded to the state for further consideration using the information noted in Section 1.16.
- If a WorkSource center or affiliate receives a program complaint regarding allegations that occurred in another state, the complaint must be taken in writing and submitted to the state using the information noted in Section 1.16 for appropriate referral and processing.

- The complaint contact, in conjunction with the WorkSource office administrator, must determine if there is enough information to suggest that a violation of Wagner-Peyser (ES) regulations or employment-related law occurred. If that is the case, the relevant complaint procedures must be followed and the violation must be logged.

1.10 H-2A and H-2B-related Complaints

- All H-2A and H-2B related complaints, whether received from workers referred through WorkSource or otherwise, are considered ES complaints.

- If a complainant files a complaint against an H-2A or H-2B employer, alleging the employer did not comply with recruitment requirements or contractual terms, the complaint will be processed as an ES Complaint against the employer.

- All complainants must be offered the full array of employment services available at the WorkSource Center.

All non-MSFW complainants are allowed 20 working days from the date of receipt to respond to a written request for additional information. If a complainant does not respond, the complaint will be considered closed.

1.13 Confidentiality

The identity of a complainant(s) or any person who provides information related to a program complaint, or who assists in a complaint investigation, will be kept confidential to the maximum extent possible, consistent with applicable law and a fair determination of the complaint. All records and correspondence related to program complaints will be maintained by the complaint contact and kept separately from any other records. All records regarding WIOA Title I complaints and actions taken must be maintained for a period of not less than three (3) years from the final date of resolution of the complaint in alignment with 29 CFR 97.42. See 29 CFR 95.53 for institutions of higher education, non-profit organizations and commercial organizations.

At a minimum, files will include:

- The original complaint filed.
- Copies of all documents related to the issues that were collected and reviewed, including all fact-finding reports and interviews.
- Copies of all correspondence and agreements with involved parties.

3.9 Complaint Log

All WorkSource centers and affiliates must maintain a system for logging WIOA program complaints and for maintaining confidentiality of complaint information. All actions taken related to receipt, referral, or disposition of each complaint must be recorded in a complaint log. An example of a complaint log is attached and meets the minimum respective requirements for program complaints.

If the Complaint Coordinator receives a discrimination complaint, they will log it as follows and then forward the complaint to the LWDB EO Officer and/or the State-Level EO Officer:

- The name and address of the complainant.
- The basis of the discrimination complaint.
- A description of the complaint.
- The date the complaint was filed.
- The disposition and date.
- Any other pertinent information.

Access to the complaint log must be limited to the Complaint Coordinator and the LWDB EO Officer.

3.10 Binding Arbitration

Complaints will be processed through a binding arbitration procedure if a collective bargaining agreement covering the parties to the complaint so provides.

Coordinated Concern and Complaint Resolution Process

*Except in cases where informal resolution at the local level would be detrimental to the complainant or allegations of discrimination are made.

5. Concern and Complaint Processing Questions & Answers (Q&A)

5.1 What is the difference between a concern and a complaint?

A concern is any written or verbal expression of dissatisfaction rather than alleged violations of program regulations noted in this handbook. A written expression of dissatisfaction may also be processed as a concern except for alleged violations of program rules or laws noted in this handbook.

Concerns do not require the same formal process as a complaint (i.e., logging, tracking, etc.). Local processes may include additional requirements for processing concerns.

5.2 What do I do if I'm not familiar with the program or scope of the concern presented?

Customers can't be expected to know what program they are connected to or who to ask for help. Our goal is to resolve all concerns as easily and quickly as possible. Because WorkSource customers usually don't know what program they are connected to, it's important to do your best to assist any customer to defuse situations as early as possible. If necessary, connect the customer with the appropriate partner or do some networking and get back to the customer. Complaint submission is not required to connect the customer with the appropriate contact.

5.3 What should I do if a customer indicates they want to file a program complaint?

If you haven't already, ask the customer what would resolve the issue and offer assistance. Often times the customer just wants to express a concern or receive assistance, without realizing the implications of submitting a formal complaint. That being said, a customer has the right to due process. If the customer's intent is to file a complaint, direct the customer to the appropriate complaint contact for further processing.

5.4 What should I do if a customer indicates they want to file a discrimination complaint?

If a customer says they feel discriminated against or feels they were treated poorly because of a protected characteristic (race, gender, age, etc.), first give the customer their rights to file a discrimination complaint with the LWDB EO Officer, the State-Level EO Officer, and the USDOL Civil Rights Center. After giving the customer their rights, continue to provide service to the customer. Please refer to WorkSource System Discrimination Complaint Processing Policy 1017.

5.5 Can a program complaint be filed via email?

Yes. A complaint provided in any reasonable form, (letter or email) which is signed by the complainant or their representative (written or electronic) and includes sufficient information to initiate an investigation must be treated as if it were a completed locally approved form filed in person.

5.6 What is an example of a written concern that is not a program complaint?

Here's an example: an email submitted to a legislator expressing dissatisfaction with services, as opposed to an allegation of a violation of program regulations, is considered a concern.

Also, a written expression of dissatisfaction made against a WorkSource partner that administers a program or a process not covered by this handbook may be processed as a concern (and referred as appropriate), even if it contains a signature. The complaint processes in this handbook are tied to specific funding sources, and external complaint processes exist to correspond with external funding sources.

5.7 Do concerns resolved at the local level need to be logged?

A local area is not required to track customer concerns. However, a local area may choose to document concerns through the use of a log or some other method.

5.8 How can a customer file a program complaint?

A customer may file a complaint by submitting a locally approved complaint form that is filled out and signed or by submitting a signed letter with sufficient information to initiate fact-finding. This handbook contains additional information regarding what must be included on complaint forms, including examples of forms that can be implemented.

5.9 Who has local authority over program complaint jurisdiction?

For WIOA Title-related complaints it would be the LWDB director or appointee (WIOA Title I complaint contact); for Wagner-Peyser and TAA-related complaints, it would be the EC regional director or the appointee (Wagner-Peyser or TAA complaint contact).

5.10 May LWDBs develop a local policy and process that applies to all WorkSource sites located in a WDA?

Yes. It is not required for each site to maintain separate policies or procedures. However, local areas may consider appointing more than one complaint contact (or other representative) for program complaints to assist with facilitation of the LWDB's process even if the LWDB is governed by one policy or procedure.

5.11 Is a local hearing required to respond to a Wagner-Peyser complaint that is not resolved at the local level?

No. If a complaint is made against ESD and that program complaint has not been resolved within 15 working days, the complaint contact will elevate the complaint to the state following procedures noted in Section 1.6.1 of the handbook.

5.12 For Wagner-Peyser, what is the difference between a complaint and an apparent violation?

An apparent violation is a violation of employment law made by an employer, where an ESD representative observes, has reason to believe, or is in receipt of information regarding a suspected violation. Apparent violations do not involve a written and signed allegation made by a customer against an employer.

Partners should be cautioned that it is not within ESD's role to search out potential employer violations of employment law. However, if violations of employment law become apparent, such situations must be documented and reported to the appropriate complaint system representative for processing according to the requirements in Section 1.9 of this handbook. Those complaint contacts will evaluate the individual circumstances of the issue presented and determine whether the allegation warrants action.

5.13 What happens if a complainant moves and we don't receive a confirmation receipt?

When using certified mail, a confirmation receipt is normally returned. If the confirmation receipt is returned, indicating the complainant no longer resides at the address provided, or the certified mail is returned as undeliverable and no other form of contact is available, the receipt or returned mail must be saved in a file as a document that confirms an attempt to make contact was made.

5.14 Can only ESD discontinue services or can a non-ESD entity providing labor exchange services also discontinue services?

Per 20 CFR 658.501\(a\), the state workforce agency (ESD) must initiate procedures for discontinuation of services to employers. This places the burden on ESD to initiate discontinuation of services procedures. Depending on the circumstances, non-ESD entities providing labor exchange services may, however, recommend that ESD initiate discontinuation of services.

5.15 What specific services could be discontinued according to the Wagner-Peyser program complaint process?

Labor exchange services would no longer be provided to the employer in question. Other services may be discontinued if such services are supported by Wagner-Peyser funds.

5.16 Where can I find a WorkSource complaint poster that satisfies Wagner-Peyser requirements?

You may print a copy of the WorkSource Complaint Poster for your office. The poster must be printed in color on 11" X 17" card stock paper in order to enhance readability.

5.17 Why are TAA Complaint Procedures included in this handbook?

TAA complaint procedures were added to the handbook in order to increase visibility of TAA requirements among partners. In addition, it made sense to centralize the location of TAA program complaint procedures to make partners aware that there are specific procedures for each.

5.18 Why is the term "grievance" not defined or noted in the WIOA Title I complaint procedures?

The term "grievance," while noted in WIOA regulations, is not defined. In addition, a review of WIOA Title I complaint procedures from other states indicated that the word "grievance" is often used interchangeably with the word "complaint." To reduce possible confusion, Employment System Administration and Policy has eliminated the use of the word "grievance" until guidance is received from DOL offering a definition that is different from the word complaint.

5.19 For WIOA Title I program complaints, can a complaint contact serve as an impartial hearing officer?

Complaint contacts may serve as an impartial hearing officer only if they are not directly connected to the allegations or potentially affected by the results of the determination(s). The impartial hearing officer must be in a position to render an impartial decision in order to avoid the appearance of unfairness. Local procedures could establish the LWDB or representatives of the LWDB as hearing officers if they are not directly connected or potentially affected by the determination.

5.20 Where can I find guidance on how to prepare for or how to conduct a hearing on a WIOA Title I program complaint?

The Washington State Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) serves as an independent state agency that conducts impartial administrative hearings. OAH's website offers instruction on how to schedule and prepare for a hearing. For WIOA Title I complaints, OAH may serve as an impartial hearing officer.

Ohio's Complaint Procedures Manual also provides several helpful examples, including a hearing notice and hearing determination outline. Refer to pages 33-36.
